

Unwanted

Bob Boucher Nov. 2012

Annalisa lonely love child
by duty conceived without a smile.
Blond hair, blue eyes, angelic face,
feed stock for the Master Race.

Unwanted at birth and sent away
Catholic convent stern and gray lonely orphanage for rejects of war her soul exposed, her feelings raw.

So long ago in her distant past,
now in the USA and free at last,
now a grand-mother with gentle ways,
she cannot forget those painful days

Under the Nazi program to repopulate the Third Reich with pure blood Aryans, the so called Hitler Baby plan was initiated whereby young blond blue eyed girls were encouraged to mate with blond blue eyed officers of the SS. Some girls had as many as five babies this way. After the defeat of the Third Reich all these babies and their mothers were kicked out of Germany, deported to Sweden, Norway and Finland. The babies were sent to orphanages. My friend was one such baby who was adopted by an American couple and raised in the USA. This is her story.
